

HACKFALL EVENT - 2011

Booking for Hackfall Events is via the Nidderdale Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB).

Phone: 01423 712950. e-mail: aonbevents@harrogate.gov.uk.

Website: www.nidderdaleaonb.org.uk/nidderdale-81

For further details including downloadable adventure trails, nature detectives trail, walk leaflets and story podcasts visit the Woodland Trust Website: www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/hackfalldownloads

Or www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/hackfall

Other information on Hackfall including photo's history and ecology can be found on the Hackfall Website www.hackfall.org.uk

Or Contact Paul Mosley, Hackfall Officer, Phone 0845 2935847 e-mail: paulmosley@woodlandtrust.org.uk

Hackfall Family Adventure Day

Sunday 17th April - 10.30am-4pm

Hackfall is a place of magic, inspiration and adventure so why not come along for your own family adventure. Take part in woodland printmaking with Hester Cox and a whole range of Nature Detective's activities. The paths are steep in places and can be muddy and slippery. Dogs welcome.

There will be:

- a guided activity walk 10.30am-12.30pm - £2 per child, adults free. Booking essential
- drop in activities 1pm-4pm – free. Booking not required

Meet: For the walk – location given on booking. For the drop in activities - Fountains Pond.

Bat Walk

Friday 6th May - 8pm-10pm

Join John Drewett of North Yorkshire Bat Group and discover these wonderful night time creatures in the stunning surrounds of Hackfall. A 3-mile walk (approx). The paths are steep in places and can be very muddy and slippery.

Meet: Location will be given at time of booking.

Cost: £3 per adult, under 16's free.

Please bring:

- a torch

Booking essential

Hackfall Trees and Woodland Landscape Photography Workshop

Sunday 8th May - 9.30-3.30pm

Join Edward Parker, Ancient Tree Hunt photographer, for a day long photography workshop and discover the landscape and trees of Hackfall.

Meet: Crown Inn Grewelthorpe

Cost: £3 per person payable on booking, plus £7 payable on the day for lunch.

You will need: a camera

Booking essential

Hackfall Bluebell Walk

Sunday 15th May -10.30am-1pm

Discover the history and beauty of Hackfall and admire the beautiful Bluebells. A 4-mile walk. The paths are steep in places and can be muddy and slippery.

Meet: Crown Inn, Grewelthorpe

Cost: £3 per adult, under 16's free.

Hackfall Intrepid Explorers

Thursday 2nd June - 1pm-3pm

A magical tour of inspiration and adventure around Hackfall, as part of National Family Week.

Take part in woodland nature detective's activities on this guided 2-3 mile activity walk. The paths are steep in places and can be very muddy and slippery. Dogs welcome.

Meet: The Crown Inn, Grewelthorpe

Cost: £2 per child, adults free.

Discover Hackfall's Water Features

Friday 24th June - 7.30pm-9.30pm

Join Paul Mosley, Hackfall Officer, and Graham Wilson, Water Feature Designer, for an evening walk of discovery and learn all about the ponds, waterfalls, cascades and fountain at Hackfall.

The paths are steep in places and can be very muddy and slippery. Dogs welcome.

Meet: The Woodland Trust car park on the Grewelthorpe to Masham Road.

Cost: £3 per adult, under 16's free

Moth Discovery

Saturday 25th June - 8am-10am

Join Charles Fletcher to discover more about these magnificent creatures, with fascinating names such as Blomer's Rivulet, Dark Arches, Ghost Moth and Elephant Hawk-Moth. At last years event 158 species were recorded - 1700 moths in total and a total of 35 new site records.

The paths are steep in places and can be very muddy and slippery.

Meet: The Woodland Trust car park on the Grewelthorpe to Masham Road.

Cost: £3 per adult, under 16's free.

Hackfall Arts Tour

Sunday 3rd July -10am-1pm

A 4-mile circular walk through Hackfall considering the interpretation of the landscape by artists and writers in the 18th and 19th centuries. The paths are steep in places and can be very muddy and slippery.

Meet: The Woodland Trust car park on the Grewelthorpe to Masham Road

Cost: £3 per adult, under 16's free.

Discover Hackfall

Sunday 21st August – 10am-12.30pm

Join the Hackfall Officer for a walk of discovery and enjoy the beauty and history of Hackfall.

The paths are steep in places and can be very muddy and slippery. Dogs welcome.

Meet: The Woodland Trust car park on the Grewelthorpe to Masham Road.

Cost: £3 per adult, under 16's free

Hackfall Heritage Open Day

Saturday 10th & Sunday 11th September

The Ruin, Landmark trust Open Days 10am -4pm

Explore Hackfall and take part in free guided walks at 11am and 2pm.

Sunday 12th September: Performance by Penny Plain Theatre at Fountains Pond.

Cost: Free

Additional Information: www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/hackfall.

A minibus shuttle service will be available from Masham to Hackfall.

Aislabie Gardens Tour – an Artists perspective

Sunday 25th September - 10am-5pm

Join Masham artist Ian Scott Massie (www.ianscottmassie.com), on this fascinating tour of two great 18th Century landscapes, created by John and William Aislabie. Discover more about the historic landscapes of Studley Royal and Hackfall, and how they have inspired artists both past and present. Please note that the paths at Hackfall are very steep in places and can be muddy and slippery.

Meet: Studley Royal - exact location to be given at time of booking.

Cost: £10 per person payable on booking, plus entry into Studley Royal Water Garden on the day (currently £9 or free to members of the National Trust and English Heritage). The price includes tours of the two Aislabie gardens, return transport between the two sites, late afternoon refreshments, and some information handouts.

Please bring:

- a packed lunch or money for lunch in the tearoom
- entry fee for Studley Royal, or your membership card
- money for car parking (£3 for the day)

Booking essential

